Money of Bank Was Embezzled; Money to Credit of Jacoby Not Bank's but Jacoby's, Says Statement;

ing the bank's claims for his notes and overdrafts.

In answer to question by counsel for defence, witness said he did not know that the lowels were worth $2000; that he was not an expect on the value of jowels and that the lewels never were in his passession. He said the value of the household furniture was not at expect on the value of the household furniture was not at expect was brought out in the evidence. Counsel for the state asked the witness whether Mrs. Smith had secured the return of the jewels, or had petitioned the count to have them returned, on the ground that they were her own private property. The court sustained the objection, to these questions, and the witness was not allowed to answer.

As to Smith Family Netes.

In further explanhilen of the value of the notes and overdrafts of the members of Smith's family in the bank at the time of the failure, witness said he had been unable to find any proberty belonging to C. H. Hardin Smith, however, that one of the notes for $500 had been paid in full and that payments of interest and a small amount on the principal had been paid on three other notes for $500 each. He said his investigation revealed that L. R. Smith and W. A. Thouseson he declared. The note that L. B. Smith gave end showed that L. B. Smith gave and his full and that the sum of $5000 had been paid in full and that payments of interest and a small amount on the principal had been paid on three other notes for $500 each. He said his examination of the record that a flower word word that L. B. Smith gave end that they were other notes for $500 each. He said his examination of the record that L. B. Smith gave end had been unable to find any problem.

He said that the force Smith's account and the ware of $10,50 he were an of $10,50 he in the said that th ruled his objection, and McCarty began his testimany.

He said his examination of the record showed that L. B. Smith's overdrafts were as follows: October 8, 1914 Arrices: Nov. 2, $2795.85; Nov. 10, $2795.09; Der. S. $4595.28, He said that on December 8, the account was charged with $2125. L. B. Smith's check dated Sept. 29, 1914, amount $1825, paid by the Bowman Bank & Trust company, Oct. 8, and one dated, Nov. 2, 1914, amount $700, paid by the Bowman Bank & Trust company, Nov. 19, made up the amount of the $2125 debit which was charged against the account on Der. 8.

Checks Carried as Cash, Witness said that from the date

Witness said that from the data these checks were paid by the Bowman Bank & Trust company, until they were charged to the account of L. E. Smith, they must have been carried in the cash items of the First State bank. Defence showed that the cash sheet and draft register showed an item of $1825, and undertook to show that the check for $1625 probably was read $1625, that the check was returned to Oklahoma, and that the bank's draft

Pro-Russian Agitators Stir Up Revolt Against Ferdinand's Government

Bucharest, Rumania, April 22.—A noutral correspondent who has been in Sofia several months states that the oppesition against king Ferdhand and his government is growing from day to day, especially in the rural districts. Pro-Russian agitators who are well supplied with funds, travel from village to tillage to foment the revolutionary movement.

Serious riots have occurred in many places and the pollos have arrested hundreds of followers of the opposition parties. The socialists and the Farmers' alliance are demanding peace, while the pro-Russian element under the leadership of ex-prime minister Chendioff wants a break with the Gentral powers and Turkey and an alliance with the Quadruple entents. Bucharest, Eumania, April 22 .-- A night, for the whole case for the defence is yet to be developed, and it is believed that the arguments to the jury will require a day. All four of the attorneys in the case will speak.

"What the hell's the use of calling the meeting? You and I coatrol the board," replied: "No, sir, I never did say that." Renshan smiled as he naked: "You never did say that, at any time?" "I did not," answered the witness.

L. B. Wooters, recalled, produced the original letter written by Smith to Howell Ernest, at that time state traveling additor and bank examiner. The court sustained the defence's objection and declined to mimit the letter in evidence.

State Rests.

The state rested its case in chief, when Wooters was excussed. It was then 3:40 p. m., and the defence asked to be allowed to wait until this morning to begin its case, a request which the court granted. It is not likely that the case will go to the jury to-

Six Million Jews Are Deprived Of Papers By Russian Censorship

El Paso.

Petrograd, Russia, April 22.-After I censorship bill, which was introduced to limit the powers of the censor, but in the form in waich it was adopted actually increases them. The debate scually increases them. The debate over the bill was extremely bitter and the members of the opposition parties attacked the government and the papers controlled by it savagely. Harkow, the leader of the "cadeta," and the socialist deputy allemow accused the government of bribing the editors and publishers of all large dailies and affered proof for their charge.

The progressive deputy Bomach created a sensation by producing a secret circular sent out by the minister of the interior which instructed the police to suppress all Jewis publications, even if not printed in Yiddish.

"Six million Jews have been robbed of their newspapers," the deputy said. "The only Jewish papers still tolerated are a few insignificant weeklies which support the government, because they are paid for doing sic, Not one of the suppressed seven Jewish dailies, hundreds of weekly and monthly papers committed the slightest offense. They did not antagonize the government, but were loyal without a single exception.

The only reason for their suppression was the anti-Semitic appirit which dominates the authorities from cahinet ministers down. This spirit is also responsible for the fact that the post-offices have been ardered to destroy all letters and postal cards written in Yiddish." over the bill was extremely bitter and
